Section 11.3. Party to Remain Responsible. No assignment permitted under this Article 11 shall relieve the assigning Party from its obligations, duties, liabilities, or financial responsibility hereunder unless and until (a) the assignee(s) agrees in writing to assume the obligations, duties, liabilities, and financial responsibilities of the assigning Party and in connection therewith cures any then existing payment defaults of the assigning Party and any then existing performance defaults that are capable of cure under this Agreement and (b) the non-assigning Party reasonably determines that the assignee(s) is no less technically and financially capable of performing its obligations and duties under this Agreement than was the assigning Party.

If either Party is rendered unable by an event of Force Majeure to carry out, in whole or in part, its obligations under this Agreement (other than payment obligations), such Party, shall as soon as reasonably practicable after the occurrence of the event, give the other Party notice thereof, including full details of the Force Majeure event, the date of its commencement, the anticipated duration if ascertainable, the performance of the Party claiming Force Majeure that is prevented by the Force Majeure event, and the actions being taken to mitigate the effects of the Force Majeure event.

Section 12.3. Mitigation. The Party claiming Force Majeure shall use commercially reasonable efforts to remedy the Force Majeure event with all reasonable dispatch; provided, however, that neither Party shall be required to settle any strike, walkout, lockout or other labor dispute on terms which, in the sole judgment of the Party involved in the dispute, are contrary to its interest, it being understood and agreed that the settlement of strikes, walkouts, lockouts or other labor disputes shall be entirely within the discretion of the Party having such dispute.

Section 12.4. Notice of Ability to Resume Performance. As soon as the Party claiming Force Majeure is able to resume performance of its obligations excused as a result of the occurrence, it shall give prompt written notification thereof to the other Party.

ARTICLE 14. CONFIDENTIALITY OBLIGATIONS

Section 14.1. Confidential Information. Except as may be required by the Arkansas Freedom of Information Act or subject to the approval of NLR, CADC shall not disclose and shall keep confidential the customer information (including without limitation customer name, address, telephone number, account number, bill history, meter history, financial information) provided CADC by NLR. To the extent necessary to fulfill its obligations under this Agreement and to the NLR customers, CADC may disclose such customer information to a third party (other than CADC's employees, lenders, counsel, accountants or advisors who have a need to know such information and have agreed to keep such information confidential) except in order to comply with any court proceeding; provided, however, to the extent practicable, CADC shall use reasonable efforts to prevent or limit the disclosure. NLR shall be entitled to all remedies available at law or in equity to enforce, or seek relief in connection with, this confidentiality obligation.

ARTICLE 15. MISCELLANEOUS

Section 15.1. Entire Agreement; Amendments. This Agreement (including the exhibits, schedules and any written supplements hereto), constitute the entire agreement between the Parties relating to the subject matter. This Agreement shall be considered for all purposes as prepared through the joint efforts of the parties and shall not be construed against one party or the other as a result of the preparation, substitution, submission or other event of negotiation, drafting or execution hereof. Except to the extent herein provided for, no amendment or modification to this Agreement shall be enforceable unless reduced to writing and executed by both Parties.

Section 15.2. Disputes/Governing Law. Any dispute between the Parties under this Agreement shall be referred to representatives of NLR and CADC designated by the Parties for resolution on an informal basis as promptly as practicable. In the event the designated representatives are unable to resolve the dispute within thirty (30) days, or such other period as the Parties may jointly agree upon, the Parties are free to exercise any and all rights and remedies. THIS AGREEMENT AND THE RIGHTS AND DUTIES OF THE PARTIES HEREUNDER SHALL BE GOVERNED BY AND CONSTRUED, ENFORCED AND PERFORMED IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE LAWS OF THE STATE OF ARKANSAS, WITHOUT REGARD TO ITS CONFLICTS OF LAW PRINCIPLES. The Parties agree the venue for any dispute arising from this Agreement shall be Pulaski County, Arkansas.

Section 15.3. Non-Waiver. No waiver by either Party of (a) the performance of any provision of this Agreement by the other Party, (b) any one or more Event of Default by the other Party in the performance of any of the provisions of this Agreement, or (c) any such Party's rights under this Agreement shall be construed as a waiver of any other performance, Event of Default, or rights, whether of a like kind or different nature.

Section 15.4. Severability. Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, any provision or article declared or rendered unlawful by a Governmental Authority with jurisdiction over the Parties, or deemed unlawful because of a change in Governmental Rule, shall not affect the validity, legality, and enforceability of the remaining provisions and articles of this Agreement.

Section 15.5. Headings. The headings used for the sections and articles herein are for convenience and reference purposes only and shall in no way affect the meaning or interpretation of the provisions of this Agreement.

Section 15.6. No Third Party Beneficiaries. Nothing in this Agreement, express or implied, is intended to confer on any Person, other than the Parties to this Agreement, any right or remedy of any nature whatsoever.

Section 15.7. Relationship Of The Parties. The Parties are independent contractors, and shall not be deemed to be partners or joint ventures of each other for any purpose, including for purposes of any taxes or for workers' compensation or liability purposes. Any designee of NLR shall be agreed to in writing by the Parties; provided that such designee must agree to conform to certain operating procedures developed by NLR, CADC and the designee. NLR, its designee and CADC shall participate in the Balancing Authority Services Committee to further modify such operating procedures throughout the Contract Term as appropriate.

Section 15.8. Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in several counterparts, each of which is an original and all of which constitute one and the same instrument.

Section 15.9. Construction. This Agreement and any documents or instruments delivered pursuant hereto shall be construed without regard to the identity of the Party who drafted the various provisions of the same. Each and every provision of this Agreement and such other documents and instruments shall be construed as though the Parties participated equally in the drafting of the same. Consequently, the Parties acknowledge and agree that any rule of construction that a document is to be construed against the drafting Party shall not be applicable either to this Agreement or such other documents and instruments.

Section 15.10. Exhibits. The exhibits attached to this Agreement form an integral part of this Agreement, and any and all exhibits referred to in this Agreement are, by such reference, incorporated herein and made a part hereof for all purposes.

Section 15.11. Tort Immunity. Nothing in this Agreement shall be interpreted as a waiver of the tort immunity granted NLR under the laws of the State of Arkansas.

Section 15.12. Reform of Agreement. If any provision of this Agreement is, becomes or is deemed invalid, illegal or unenforceable, such provision shall be deemed amended to conform to applicable laws so as to be valid and enforceable; or if it cannot be so amended without materially altering the intention of the Parties, it shall be stricken, and the remainder of this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, each Party has caused this Agreement to be executed on its behalf by its duly authorized representative, effective as of the Effective Date. This Agreement shall not become effective as to either Party unless and until executed by both Parties.
